

MY FATHER'S BLESSING

A Story of Survival and Triumph

By
Ruth Scheuer Siegler

There is not one day that goes by that I do not remember things from my past. I often wonder why it was I who survived. I will never forget, but one has to forgive and look for the good in what life has to offer.

For those who deny the events of the Holocaust, I am the proof. Today, at age 83, I am content and grateful. I am blessed with three wonderful children and seven beautiful, healthy grandchildren who have inherited their parents' good traits. As I often say, this is my reward. Although this is my personal story, I know it is also part of the world's history; perhaps I have contributed something of my past from which future generations may learn.

— Ruth Scheuer Siegler

Photo: Ruth Scheuer Siegler and Family, 1967.

