

60 PER CENT OF 16TH CHEST NEEDS IN HAND

$275,893.37 Collected By Workers As First Week Of Drive Ends

TWO SCHOOL AREA CANVASSERS REPORT 100 PER CENT CONTRIBUTIONS

It was the Community Chest's ball on the 40-year line today. So far this week the Chest's team of 10,000 volunteer soldiers has carried the appeal 60 per cent of the total distance—$275,893.37.

With Chest officials estimating that at least $500,000 more will be received before now and midnight tonight, Chest leaders are confident they will enter the second week of the campaign Monday with only some $140,000 still to be raised between them and the $400,737 goal for the year.

Tiger Meets Tiger Today Fans In City For Auburn-L. S. U. Clash

Another holiday-minded horde of leather-lunged collegians, gay old grads and enthusiastic grandstand quarterbacks invaded Birmingham today where they were joined by eager local recruits for the push on Legion Field this afternoon to see the city's third major gridiron battle of the season—

Ready To Claw

No, Gertrude, those two huge gentlemen shown in elbow-bending positions at opposite corners below are not demonstrating their muscles for a breakfast food ad, nor are they practicing for a strap-hungry contest later.

They are shaking their fists at one another, the brutes. No, the police are doing nothing about it. Because these gentlemen have a right to shake their fists at one another. Why? Because they are—

And those two knife-and-fist gladiators between the fist shakers are Spec Kelly, left, and Charlie Haynesworth, Auburn backfield stars, and like true Tigers they seem fangs in that pose.

At left lower is a part of the L. S. U. squad just minutes away from the last-minute preparation for the grid clash. The next picture shows Jack Staples, left, and Young Bussey, L. S. U. backfield standouts, enjoying a moment of diversion. Mr. Bussey, you will remember, is the un-

Gas Tax Proposal Leads In County, Lags In State

Official tabulation of Jefferson County returns from Tuesday's general election showed today that the gasoline tax amendment carried in this county by a two-to-one vote, while Democratic opponents by an un-
