

BIRMINGHAM
HOLOCAUST
EDUCATION
CENTER

TEACHER WORKSHOP

Teaching with Stories—Romania

Thursday, October 14, 2021

9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Zoom ONLINE

FREE. Online registration required. (Registration is limited)

Explore Holocaust history through the lives of three survivors who lived within 75 miles of each other in Northern Transylvania:

Max Steinmetz, born 1925, Târgu Lăpuș, Romania

Martin Aaron, born 1927, Săpînța, Romania

Elie Wiesel, born 1928, Sighet, Romania

- Explore historical context and its impact on individual lives.
- Learn to teach the history of the Holocaust using survivor stories.
- Examine Holocaust literature to broaden your teaching.

Open to Alabama teachers in grades 6-12.

Facilitated by BHEC educators.

Teachers must attend all 4 online sessions & complete a post-workshop evaluation to be eligible for the following:

- Substitute reimbursement paid up to $80/day
- Four (4) hours of CEU credit
- Two (2) free texts:
Determined to Survive: A Story of Survival and One Teacher's Passion to Bring that Story to Life by Amy McDonald and Max Steinmetz
Night by Elie Wiesel

To register, or for more information, visit www.bhecinfo.org